CENTRAL COLLEGE.

215—Calle del Peru—215.

Mr. WERNICKE.

This educational establishment well known among natives and foreign residents of Buenos Ayres and the Provinces was opened in the year 1862, and is always able through the incessant care and attention of the Director and his well known professors, to give the soundest education to the pupils confided to their management.

The branches most carefully taught are French, English, German, and Arithmetic, and a particular care is given to a good hand writing and geography.

The pupils find everything for their comfort—in the play-yard are every kind of gymnastic apparatus.

MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY OF THE DAY.

To Sheep-farmers and the Public in general.

F. C. Calvert's Phenyline & Terebanes Sheep Salve

The great reputation these specifics have enjoyed in England on account of their extraordinary success in all cases where they have been applied, has induced the proprietor to introduce them in this market on account of the immense sheep farming interest of the country To enable sheep-farmers to obviate in future the enormous losses they sustain yearly, not only in the deterioration of the Sheep, but also, as frequently happens, the loss of the animal itself. It is a powerful antesceptic, and he only asks a fair trial, feeling confident of the result. The following is a list of some of the uses to which these antesceptics may be applied—

In Sheep—To cure maggots footrot, scab, lice, tick.

In Horses—Canker in the feet, grease, quitter, all cangrenous wounds or ulcers, cracked heels, mange, &c

Cows; distemper, and all diseases of the hoofs.

For wounds or bruises resulting from accident and for all general Veterinary purposes these remedies are sure. Phenyline is found to be remarkably successful in the Hospitals in England for curing Cancer. Terebene is also used for preserving hides, skins and bones from all vermin and insects, the parcels already cured with it in this city and Australia have merited the approval of purchasers in England who report them to be perfectly sound and sweet. The leather made from the hides is also declared to be superior in every respect

SATURDAY, AUGUST 29, 1863.

THE FLORES ADMINISTRATION.

"Building castles in the air" seems to be now D. Venancio's occupation, and we subjoin an amusing catalogue of posts and officers to be allotted when he takes the Presidential chair in Montevideo. It is taken from a letter, dated Cerros Blancos July 8th which was accidentally picked up, within a few yards of the revolutionary rendez-vous at B Ayres.

He states that he intends to cross Rio Negro, northwards, in order to procure fresh troops of horses, and be enabled to receive the supplies sent by his friends in Buenos Ayres. He calculates to enter Montevideo between the 20th and 30th August, when the following "honorable" men will be placed in power:—

Superior Tribunal—President D. Salvador Tort.
2d Section—Pres. D. Juan J. Aguiar
Prime Minister—D. Jose Maria Pla
Finance Sec.—D. Manual Acosta y Lara
Foreign Affairs—D. Mateo Magariños
War—D. Fructuoso Gomez (dead)
Chief of Staff—Col Bernabe Magariños
Collector of Customs—Gregorio Conde
Customs Clerks—Vazquez, Olave, Toribio
Chief Treasurer—Manuel Aguiar
Head Clerk Heraclio Fajardo, Indigena
Receiver General Candido Bustamante
Attorney-General—Faustino Santos
Solicitor-General—Jose M. Vilaza
Captain of Port—Bernardo Dupuny
Postmaster Gen.—Francisco Aguilar
Stamp Agent—Luis Magariños
Chiefs of Frontier—Salto: Antonio Netto—Tacuarembo: Manoco Ilha—Cerro-Largo: Joaquin Figuerroa—Eta Theresa: Fernandez Paranhos.

Among the Chiefs of Police, we perceive the adventurer Saldaña, for Salto; Caraballo, for Paysandu; Juan C. Ledesma, for Mercedes; Nicasio Borjes, for Canelones; Mamluca Carabajal, for Minas; Fausto Aguilar, for Cerro-Largo; Goyo Suarez, for Tacuarembo; and Colonel Guerra, for Montevideo

He adds, by way of P.S., that he has a horror of those "blood sucking lawyers." Therefore he has named Juan José Aguiar, who is no lawyer, as President of the Second Tribunal of Justice, this being the gentleman who drew up his late famous proclamation.

LATEST FROM THE URUGUAY

FLORES DEFEATED.

General Urquiza's official paper, "Uruguay," has a mild censure on the National Government, respecting the proposed inquiry at Concordia touching the alleged violation of Argentine territory by Lamas, in his retreat. Don Miguel Lucero has been named member of the Tribunal of Justice. The school examinations of Talá came off respectably. M. Alexandre Dumas, not the French author, arrived at Concepcion. We read nothing of the reported counter-invasion of Banda Oriental, by Waldino Urquiza at the head of 600 men, to put down the rebels.

The Oriental Government has abolished the military command North of Rio Negro. Saldaña and his gang abandoned Fray Bentos at Medina's approach. Colonel Azambuya arrived at Salto, although reported dead. Capt. Rana has received despatches of Colonel of N. Guard.

A 'gentleman' entrusted with 20-and odd doubloons, by the Oriental Revolutionary Committee of Buenos Ayres, for Flores, ran away with the money, thinking, no doubt, it might be turned to a better purpose.

We have the 'Pueblo' of Gualeguaychú, 26th inst.

Flores crossed the Rio Negro on the 18th inst, in 2 divisions, 800 at Paso Toros, and 700 at Paso Quinteros: the first encamped, next day, at Moyos, 7 leagues from Durazno, where Colonel Lizard prepared for a resolute defence. President Berro visited Major Moyano in Montevideo, to congratulate him on his promotion to the grade of Colonel. Piris has been substituted for Domingo Gonzales, as commander of the Salto cavalry. On the 15th General Medina was at Arroyo Salsipuedes: he intercepted a letter from Flores to Saldaña, congratulating him on the capture of Fray Bentos, but advising him to "clear out," as he could render him no assistance, communication being cut off.

Letters from Mercedes, dated August 22d, 1, a.m., state as follows:—Yesterday evening, at 4 o'clock, the tocsin was rung, and the National Guards mounted on all the house tops. At 11 the alarm was repeated, for a force of 260 men entered the town: they belonged to the Laguna Division, the rest remaining encamped at the outskirts. They came to observe Flores, who, as they heard, had been seen at Cololo! We expected the filibusters to day, as they are fleeing from Medina; our National Guards are under arms to repel the vagabonds. It is beyond all doubt, that Flores has suffered a great reverse from Medina's vanguard, and the rebels are scattered in all directions south of Rio Negro.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The long looked for correspondence on the Flores invasion has been at last laid before Congress. As far as pen, ink, and paper go, it would seem the ministers did their best to stop Flores, but neither letters nor documents will be able to change facts. From Buenos Ayres Flores started, from Entre Rios Urquiza departed, both for the Banda Oriental. All the documents in the Government house won't change this fact, and now it is rumoured that some of our unemployed half pay officers in the interior are about to take pattern after these generals.

The excuse of the Captain of the Pampero reflects very little credit on him; he states that he was without a pilot, and that he took the captain of a 'ballenero' on board to act as one, tugging the 'ballenero' up the river as compensation for his services. This is what we term very like a whale, and won't go down. It is said that President Mitre will put him on his trial, and relieve him of the command of his vessel.

The promoters of the Welch colony enterprise hit upon a rather inauspicious time for bringing the matter before Congress. The French and English protests about the naturalization law made Congress pretty unanimous in rejecting it.

The Executive has signed the law for redeeming Corrientes paper-money at the rate of 1000 doubloons per annum; the total sum is 1,574,000 $ m/c equivalent at 230 $ to 6,843 ounces. Thus the whole currency will disappear in 1871, provided we have no revolutions &c.

A 'Tribuna' correspondent from San Antonio de Areco says that district is in a flourishing condition, and the 'gauchos' growing much more industrious and civilized. This he attributes to their intercourse with Irishmen who own half the partido and are excellent citizens. What a change! since M. Varela termed Irishmen "the greatest barbarians of Europe."

Three parties applied to us yesterday for cotton seed to plant in gardens, for an experiment, at Barracas and S Isidro. The 'Nacion Argentina,' translated an article of ours on Cotton in Corrientes, without acknowledging the source.

Nothing is more amusing than to remark how two papers, printed in Spanish in this city, have all at once changed round in their ideas about foreigners. Every packet review we remark they wind up with Immigration apostrophes, which we are glad to see, although the conversion has been so sudden, that we half doubt their sincerity.

The 'Mersey' difficulty about the passage money of the banished politicians is at last cleared up. Mr. Martinez says, 'that a little before the 'Mersey' sailed, and about an hour after the exiles were on board, I waited on the Post adjutant who was on board, and demanded who it was would pay the passage money of these persons,' The Adjutant remarked, that it was the intention of the Govt. to pay them; respecting my passport, I myself obtained it with the note attached merely as evidence for the motives which induced me to leave my country under the present circumstances.

We perceive that on the 31st of this month the remains of Dr. Blas Aguero will be exhumed, and re-interred in the family vault. It will be remembered that this was the case which excited so much discussion with the Bishop.

Among the departures by this packet is Alfred Rumball, Esq., C.E., engineer of the projected Great Southern Railway. He went by yesterday's supplemental mail to catch the Mersey in Montevideo, taking with him a ratification of the changes agreed on in the concession. He entertains the highest hopes of being able to return, to commence the works, by November.

It was rumoured, yesterday, in town, that Flores was seen near Colonia, picking up horses: he has, already, a large troop, as we are informed by an Englishman's letter.

The Entre Rian papers state that the Chacho has completely defeated Colonel Arredondo, having surprised him eating carne con cuero. It is more likely Mr and Mrs Brigadier general Peñaloza are safe in Bolivia.

The Pharmaceutical Society has published its review for July, which we will review to-morrow. It is strange that other fraternities do not imitate the Apothecaries in this idea. We perceive that the Tailors of Santiago (Chile) have just formed a guild.

An Englishman, resident in Paraguay, writes to ask us for our Macartney gin. It seems all progress or improvement is destined to go 'aguas arriba.'

M. Fauze, the hero of mail coaches, has arrived from the interior. We hear great praise given him for the improved system of Pampa travelling which he has introduced.

The Kepler and French packet are both expected to-day. It is possible we shall have the La Plata to morrow, bringing twelve days later than the two former steamers.

Santa Rosa seems to be coming. The weather looks very louring, and we may calculate on a regular torme.ta before 48 hours

Carlos Angel, one of the great provincial revolutionists, has been caught at last, but Varela has escaped. The news from the interior shows clearly that the embers of revolution are still alive, and may yet burst into a blaze, if proper measures are not taken.

On Friday morning we had a beautiful shower, which we hope our camp friends had the benefit of. The weather was quite warm yesterday, and we think that the long wished for rain is at last near hand.

The navigation of the Salado seems to be at last placed beyond all doubt. Sr. Rams and Rupert has returned. Mr. White, the engineer, is expected in a few days. We hope therefore to see the company immediately established.

We call our readers' attention to the disgusting effrontery of the 'Tribuna' in giving notice that it is about to commence a series of personal attacks upon Sor. Lamas, the Montevidean representative in this city. We publish in another column Sor. Lamas's note to the Government, and feel certain that its sentiments are those of every respectable foreigner and native in the country.

The Chief of Police is decorating the Plaza Mayo, front of the National Government house, with rows of Paradise trees.

To-night comes off the Club del Plata 'tertulia' in honor of St. Rosa. We learn that several of our fair countrywomen will attend, and the re-union will probably be very brilliant.

An uneasy feeling prevails among native and foreign circles, respecting the possibility of a rupture with France. At the same time there is no such fear of England, as the Minister's protest is looked on as one of those unmeaning diplomatic formalities—vox et praterea nihil.

THE EDITOR AND SUB-SECRETARY.

B. A., May 19, 1863.

To Dr. R. Elizalde, Minister of Foreign Affairs.

When in the interest of the peace, prosperity, civilization, and political organization of the Republics of La Plata, I accepted the office which this day I discharge, as Oriental Minister, near the Argentine Republic, I did so in the belief that the reserve and discretion necessary for the maintenance of friendly relations between the two countries would be observed, and that the international courtesies which every civilised government, on the face of the globe respects, even in the most difficult circumstances, would not be violated.

It is true that the PUBLIC SCANDAL of an editor of a newspaper, acting as Sub-Secretary of State, was going on—that this editor was, in the columns of his journal, defaming a government with which his own was not only on the most friendly, but brotherly, relations and provoking each day rebellion and civil war in the Banda Oriental but I felt convinced that as the Argentine neutrality had been most solemnly assured, this scandal would be abrogated, because the permitting such public conduct in a Sub-Secretary of State was, apart from the international convenience, irreconcilable with the politics adopted in the internal affairs of the Oriental Republic. Unfortunately this has not occurred.

A Sub-secretary of State for the Argentine Government has continued slandering the Oriental Government, preaching rebellion, giving public support to the ruffian who has gone to restore in the Oriental Republic the reign of ruffianism and depredation, in order to establish on the ruins of a returning prosperity of that unfortunate country, upon the ruins of the legal administration, civil power, a personal despotism of military ruffians; and all this was not even enough, but actually availing himself of the secret diplomatic correspondence between myself and your Excellency, became acquainted with all the facts, and then this self same sub-secretary treacherously published same in his newspaper, in the usual one sided manner, so as to bring the private communications and expressions of opinion which I had the honor of conveying to you within the four walls of the office of Secretary of State, to be talked and discussed in the public squares and streets of Buenos Ayres. With all these facts before me, and certain that alike for myself and my Government, honor and dignity are the first interests and most essential requisites, I have decided to accept the consequences, whatever they may be, and to make the following declarations to the Argentine Government.

First, That considering that it is a notorious undeniable fact that a sub secretary of state openly slanders the Government of the Oriental Republic, and foments revolution in that country, and that such conduct is a grave international inconvenience, I declare that the continuation of such toleration is in my opinion, irreconcilable with the preservation of the peaceable relations which happily exist between the two Governments.

Second—That considering, unless the privacy of diplomatic correspondence is guaranteed, and preserved within that serene and illustrious sphere in which matters concerning the peace of nations should be kept, and unless some discretion dictate the well-meant measures which every government adopts to prevent such evil; and, finally, unless the diplomatic agents which surround all free governments are in full enjoyment of that respect and immunity for their opinions which is so essential, and which personally I am accustomed to, and which personally I have the highest and most special right to, in this Argentine territory, in this city of Buenos Ayres—a slave in former times to a cruel tyranny, against which I have combated, all my life, and which to-day I combat in the resuscitation of the 'caudillo' and of the 'montoneros,' who caused all the tyranny, and which impoverished, ruined, humiliated, and discredited this country, I declare, therefore, that it is impossible for me to continue in the discharge of any official duties in the friendly and pacific mission which has been entrusted to me.

Frankly, Mr. Minister, if the chair which I have the honor to fill in the Foreign-office to the Argentine Republic, with the honorable intention of preserving the friendly relations which existed between the two governments, and thus preventing and rendering impossible a recurrence of these bloody misfortunes in the River Plate, can be converted, with the connivance of the Argentine Government, into a pillory where I am to be persecuted by an Argentine Sub-Secretary, no matter what may be the consequence, I will never again sit in such a chair. The respect which I owe my country, the Oriental Republic—whose rank and rights as an independent sovereign nation we are determined to maintain in all its integrity—and the respect due to myself personally, will not permit me.

Having made these declarations, it is almost unnecessary to remark that the continuation of my mission near the Argentine Republic entirely depends upon the resolution which the Government, to which these remarks refer, thinks proper to adopt.

In conclusion, I avail myself of the present opportunity to reiterate my expressions of distinguished consideration, &c,

ANDREW LAMAS.

The foregoing letter will be read with interest by our readers. People can now see the cause of all our complications in the Oriental question. We agree with Sor. Lamas that the conduct of the Argentine Government in allowing its Sub Secretary to slander a friendly Government, and publicly espouse anarchy and revolution, is reprehensible. Sor. Lamas is right in refusing to act, so long as President Mitre tolerates such an international abuse.

The answer of Sr Elizalde to the above note, is one of the lamest documents we ever read, and reflects little credit on the minister who penned it. We regard it as unworthy the attention of our readers, and not worth the trouble of translating. We may state, that the minister confines himself to no defence of the accused sub-secretary and his delectable paper. What would people in Europe think of such conduct?

AN INDIGNANT CORRESPONDENT.

To write, or not to write, that is the question. Whether it is better for a man to write, even in bad English, or not to write and publish, but suffer his horses to be taken forcibly out of his possession; to see his countrymen murdered—aye, and his countrywomen also—were it not a Providential escape. To know that these occurrences happen and not make it known to the public in truthful though rustic style, lest one offend some mealy-mouthed knight of the Queen's English. Decide, I am for 'to write,' let who will be against it, and let the charge of a dereliction of duty rest on the editors, for not 'preparing for the press' what their 'friends' and 'contributors' send them as news, or direct information. I do not pretend to be a scholar, or a literary man; my letters prove 'it they always require editing,' and I confessed the same in my 'first letters' to the editors, because I said 'then,' as I say now, 'I write for a purpose,' and not for the 'ear or eye.' I am still willing to do so, I cannot do better.

You will at once perceive that I am so induced to speak, by a letter in your Sunday's issue, criticising 'us generally,' and 'especially' an expression made use of in a letter published in your paper a few days before. 'You know well' 'that' letter was not intended, when written, to be published in the 'Standard, least of all, when dictated in the free and easy style used by one friend to another, not that I mean to reproach 'my friend' for having published my letter, because my letter, myself, even my mode of expressing, are at my friend's disposal. This amounts to a confession that I wrote that letter, and so expressed myself—which I did do—to a friend of mine: you know what followed.

I am not for tilting in the press: by no means, on such an occasion 'peccavi.' But were I informed the knight of the Queen's English, and your subscriber, had contributed ever so little towards rewarding that man that arrested the assassin of two of the Queen's subjects, 'then' I would say his chivalry lay the right way, 'now,' and until you inform me that he has done so, I say his chivalry lies only on the point of his pen, where he can use it, when and how he likes, for all I care.

'My' chivalry lies the other way. I have no objection that you be umpire in the matter. The article in question will show you how I was engaged that day, rendering 'aid and comfort' to the widow and the widow's child: both of them had a narrow escape of their lives. The widow was wounded in the hand with the knife—as I suppose—that let flow her husband's lifeblood. As I was supporting her that day, I encouraged her, of course, to bear up and be calm—the poor woman trembled so—to scan the circle well, and be sure, before she pointed to any one. She did so: but when she said, as she pointed, 'there is the villain,' she could say no more, and fell back on my arms. I carried her from the place. (It was the same person the other girl identified.) They gave me thanks for what I had done. I regretted the occasion, of course, but was proud to be able to assist them in any way. I came home, wrote a letter to a friend, gave him the news of the day—after the business part—and made use of an expression that was caught up by your subscriber, and is the cause of all this writing to me, and my troubling you with details, which otherwise I should not have done.

PARAGUAY.

The news from this prosperous republic is cheering. The greatest harmony prevails between President Lopez and his people: cotton-planting commands increased attention. The festival of the Assumption (15th inst.) being commemorative of the capital, Asuncion, was celebrated with great 'eclat.' The drama 'Margaret of Burgundy" was given at the theatre on the 9th inst by the Spanish company. The town of Aregua gave itself up to two days' festivities on occasion of the President's birth-day. The Judges of the capital gave a grand ball, to the same purpose.

The Minister of War received an apoplectic stroke, on the 3rd inst. in his office, but happily recovered soon after. The public edifices in course of construction are going on rapidly. A new steamer built in the dockyards of Asuncion is about to be launched by the President, with due solemnity. We see some advertisements for run-away slaves, showing this evil is in full force. Messrs. John Duguid and D. Culloch arrived in Asuncion, and Messrs. Frederick Hargreaves, James Parkmore, and Miss Jane Hart left for Buenos Ayres, during the month. Imports for July 85,872 $ Exports 9?,141 $.

THE O'CONNELL STATUE.

Mr. Editor—The paltry sum subscribed for the O'Connell Testimonial will induce persons not acquainted with this province to believe that very few Irishmen reside in it. How astonished our countrymen lately arrived were: when the list of subscribers appeared in your journal they expressed their disappointment at the want of patriotism in the Irish of Buenos Ayres, who, said they; were looked upon in the old country as respectable, wealthy, and liberal: but that subscription list shows them be, for the greater part, Irishmen only in name. Oh, how differently, exclaimed many of them, are our fathers and friends doing in the dear old soil? the servant man and the maid, the day labourer and the struggling farmer, all contribute their mite, and may God bless them for it. What a very good example is set us by that generous Scotch lady who sent in her subscription, and the good Dr. Fermin, Villa Lujan? contrasted with our Irish estancieros and medianeros, how contrary the nobleness of feeling! Small as the sum was you had to remit, yet there is a consolation in having the name of one Roman Catholic priest on the list, and he an Irishman!

KILCOURSEY.

INTERESTING FROM E RIOS.

Concepcion, Aug. 27, 1863.

To the Editors of the Standard.

Gentlemen—I have received only three copies of the "Standard" since my arrival here—dates of the 15th, 22nd, and 23rd. Do you have them mailed regularly by every steamer? if so, who is in the fault?

Yesterday Lamas was here on a flying visit to Don Justo, but returned late in the afternoon from San Jose, and proceeded by land up the river.

There is no news here of Flores or Medina. Everything remains quiet in this poverty-stricken place, yet who knows what a world of dark secrets are in the breasts of almost every one who passes by you? Goethe has said somewhere that each of us, the best as the worst, hides within him something—some feeling, some remembrance that, if known, would make you hate him. The National Government must conciliate these people, by some little deeds and words of kindness, and bridle the venomous and vituperative articles that constantly appear in the Tribuna and Nacional.

"A little word in kindness spoken,
A motion or a tear,
Has often healed the heart that's broken
And made a friend sincere."

THE MERCEDES MURDER.

To the Editor—Sir,—Will you allow me to say, in reply to the rather broad and long-winded statement of your Mercedes correspondent, that he writes in total ignorance of the reported movements in town on the above subject. When wielding his broom "pro bono publico" he would do well to sweep the snow from his own door ere he attack his neighbour's.

Yours, &c.,

VERAS.

ON THE PROSPECTS OF COTTON CULTIVATION IN THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.

By Thomas J. Hutchinson, F.R.C.S., &c., H.B.M. Consul at Rosario.

Dread of civil wars and the bugbear of Indian invasions are dissipated when it is known that this colony was never molested by either party during the disturbances of 1853 to 1861, and although it is situated on the borders of the Chaco, the Indians have not once attacked it, for they are aware of the colonists having many good rifles, and some excellent marksmen amongst them.

Between the settlement and the River Salado—which here, in conjunction with the small stream Kolulu, forms the boundary of the Indian territory—a company of soldiers have a stationary frontier guard; but the colonists feel a more certain assurance in their own self-reliance than if they were surrounded by a cordon of military defences.

These facts are related to me by the governors—and during my stay at the colony I had proof of their truth—to show that what has been done, and is doing, by the inhabitants of Esperanza, in certain branches of agriculture, can be done by others in the more important one of cotton cultivation.

Objections may be raised to this idea by those who have no faith in any kind of cotton except that which comes from the United States, nor in any sort of labour except that of negro slavery. The reports, however, from Queensland prove that cotton can be cultivated by European hands.

The staple produced there, even previous to the outbreak of the North American war, has been bought by Mr. Bazley, M.P., for 1s 9d per pound. Some of it has been sold at Liverpool, as late as last September, for 3s per pound, and more from the same place, of the Sea Island variety, has been valued at the General Exhibition of last year, in London, at 4s 6d.

ON 'CHANGE.

August 28th.

Ounces kept very firm to day, opening at 436 1|2, and closing at 435 1|3 Sales for cash, $205. The sales on time were limited to short dates, over six thousand ounces were sold for Monday, and twice as many more have we hear to be bought yet to meet sales falling due that day.

Merchants were greatly disappointed at the non arrival of the Kepler or Santongo, as both were fully due this morning. Produce business is very dull.

As yet no contracts for the new wool have been effected, nor have any orders been received, as we are informed. Very little wool will probably be sold on contract this year, owing to the great litigation which it gave rise to last year; both buyers and sellers are better pleased to make a bargain when the wool is in the market. It is not thought that the epidemic in the South will diminish seriously the amount of the clip of 1863, as the increase of the flocks in the north has been rather good.
